ABSTRACT

This bibliography was prepared to support the Urban Studies Program at Trinity University. This is a two-year master's program which provides professional level experience and intensive field work for persons preparing for employment in urban agencies. The bibliography is designed to aid students during the library instruction portion of the Urban Research Course. It lists basic reference sources in the Urban Studies field and gives their location within the library. Materials are divided into seven categories: (1) Indexes and Abstracts; (2) Bibliographies; (3) Dissertations and Theses; (4) Atlases, Encyclopedias and Dictionaries; (5) Directories, Handbooks, and Guides; (6) Statistics; (7) Sources of Congressional and Legislative Information. A listing of important periodicals in the urban studies field is also included.

INFORMATION SOURCES FOR RESEARCH IN URBANOLOGY:

A BASIC BIBLIOGRAPHY

I. INDEXES AND ABSTRACTS.

A. HUMAN RESOURCES ABSTRACTS. Volume 1- . Jan./Feb. 1966- . Beverly Hills, California, Sage Publications. Quarterly. INDEX REF H1 X2 P6.

Published with the cooperation of the Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations, University of Michigan-Wayne State University. Volumes 1-9 entitled: POVERTY AND HUMAN RESOURCES ABSTRACTS.

An abstracting service covering periodical articles, books, pamphlets, unpublished reports, etc., mainly concerned with social problems and developments in the United States. Author, Subject indexes in each issue; annual cumulative index.

B. INDEX TO CURRENT URBAN DOCUMENTS. Volume 1 - . 1972 - . Westport, Connecticut, Greenwood Press. Quarterly with annual cumulations. INDEX REF HT 123 X2 I5.

Contains bibliographic descriptions of official documents issued by the larger cities and counties in the U.S. and Canada as well as documents issued by governments and agencies at all levels which relate specifically to those municipalities. Geographic, Subject indexes.

Documents cited in this Index can be obtained from the URBAN DOCUMENTS MICROFICHE COLLECTION, Greenwood Press.

C. NEW YORK TIMES INDEX. Volume 1 - . 1850 - . New York, New York Times Company. Semi-monthly with quarterly and annual cumulations. MF REF AI 21 N44.

A very accurate subject index, giving exact date, page and column where the article can be located in the newspaper. Many cross references are provided, and the brief synopses of articles can often answer questions without referring to the paper itself.

D. NEWSBANK URBAN AFFAIRS LIBRARY. 1970 - . Arcata Microfilm Corporation. Microform Area.

A microfiche collection of articles from 150 leading newspapers in the U.S. which cover subjects of interest to students, teachers, researchers, and planners in the field of Urban Studies. The Newsbank is a unique reference source in light of the fact that very few newspapers are indexed. Some of the subjects included are: Education, Consumer Affairs, Employment, Housing and Urban Renewal, Politcal Development, Minority Economic Development, Social Relations, Health, Welfare and Poverty, etc. Looseleaf index.

E. PUBLIC AFFAIRS INFORMATION SERVICE. BULLETIN. Volume 1 - . 1915 - . New York, Public Affairs Information Service. INDEX REF H1 X2 P82.

Usually cited as PAIS. Issued as (1) weekly bulletins; (2) cumulations; (3) the permanent annual volume.

A subject index to the current literature in fields of political science, government, legislation, economics, sociology, etc. Includes selective indexing to more than 1000 periodicals published in English throughout the world; also indexes books, documents, pamphlets, reports of public and private agencies, etc.

F. RESOURCES IN EDUCATION. Volume 1 - . Nov., 1966 - . Washington, D.C., U.S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare. Monthly. INDEX REF LB 1028 X2 R35. Formerly: RESEARCH IN EDUCATION.

At head of title: Educational Research Information Center -- ERIC.

Contains abstracts of education-related literature including many unpublished documents, e.g., technical and research reports, conference papers, speeches, etc. ERIC microfiche are available containing the entire document for most of the entries. (located by "ED" number).

Beginning 1968, semiannual and annual cumulated indexes available arranged by subject; author; institution. RIE is the most important index in the field of education.

G. SAGE URBAN STUDIES ABSTRACTS. Volume 1 - . 1973 - . Beverly Hills, California, Sage Publications. Quarterly. INDEX REF HT51 S24.

Abstracts of books, articles, pamphlets, government publications, significant speeches and legislative research studies dealing with urban affairs. Subject and author index.

H. SOCIAL SCIENCE CITATION INDEX; AN INTERNATIONAL MULTIDISCIPLINARY INDEX TO THE LITERATURE OF THE SOCIAL, BEHAVIORAL AND RELATED SCIENCES. 1972 - . Philadelphia, Institute for Scientific Information. INDEX REF H1 X2 S6.

Provides a type of indexing known as "citation indexing" by which all authors citing another author are identified. This enables the searcher to go backwards and forward in the literature and make a most comprehensive study. Access through Permuterm (key word) index -- Source index (author) -- Citation index -- Corporate (Organization) index.

I. SOCIAL SCIENCES INDEX. Volume 1 - . 1974/75 - . New York, H.W. Wilson Co. INDEX REF AI1 R49.
Supersedes in part SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES INDEX (1907-1974) formerly entitled INTERNATIONAL INDEX. Quarterly with cumulations.

Author and subject index identical in format to the READER'S GUIDE, but covering more specialized, scholarly periodicals in fields of anthropology, area studies, economics, environmental science, psychology, public administration, sociology, etc. Indexes 263 periodicals.

J. SOCIOLOGICAL ABSTRACTS. Volume 1 - . 1952 - . New York, Sociological Abstracts. INDEX REF HM1 S67.
Published 9 times a year under the cosponsorship of the Eastern Sociological Society and the Midwest Sociological Society.

A classified abstract journal covering a broad range of sociological articles in periodicals in various languages. Some years are without cumulated indexes.

K. URBAN AFFAIRS ABSTRACTS. Volume 1 - . 1971 - . Washington, D.C. National League of Cities and U.S. Conference of Mayors. INDEX REF HT 123 U7.

Weekly abstracting service that selects and abstracts articles in field of urban affairs using approximately 300 periodical publications. Useful for the public official and community planner. Annual cumulations are arranged by subject and include author, geographic indexes.

A. A COMPARATIVE ATLAS OF AMERICA'S GREAT CITIES: TWENTY METROPOLITAN REGIONS. Association of American Geographers and the University of Minnesota Press, 1976. REF G 1201 A1 A3 1976

The atlas is volume 3 of the Comparative Metropolitan Analysis Project and is a highly recommended reference source for urbanologists and planners at the local, state, and national levels. The maps and text provide comprehensive information and data on 20 of the nation's largest urban centers. Volumes 1 & 2 of this set are on order.

B. INTERNATIONAL ENCYCLOPEDIA OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES. David L. Sills, ed. New York, Macmillan and the Free Press, 1968. 17 volumes.
REF H 40 A215.

Not a mere revision of the Encyclopedia of the Social Sciences, but a completely new work. Planned to represent the social sciences in the 1960's, it reflects the development and recent rapid expansion in this area. Topical articles are devoted to concepts, principles, theories, and methods in the disciplines of anthropology, economics, geography, history, law, political science, psychiatry, psychology, sociology, and statistics. Biographical sketches have been limited to about 600 (in contrast to the 4,000 in the earlier set), and living persons born before 1890 were eligible for inclusion. Bibliographies are provided.

C. THE LANGUAGE OF CITIES: A GLOSSARY OF TERMS. Abrams, Charles. New York, Viking Press, 1971.
REF HT 108.5 A24.

Charles Abrams, one of the world's leading urban planners and housing experts, completed this work just before his death in 1970.

This selection of terms related to the city-scape defines them simply and accurately, giving the historical evolution and current usage of the term, as well as a touch of personal opinion by the author. The glossary is liberally cross-referenced and will be of interest to all city dwellers, be they laymen or professional planners and administrators.
